

SOCIAL SCIENCE TRIBUNE

Contents

J.A. Spinthourakis - I. Kamarianos

What identity? national, European or something more? 5

Gil Baptista Ferreira

What identity for Europe? Communication, memory, and citizenship 13

Beata Krzywosz-Rynkiewicz

Children's understanding of pupils' responsibility – a self-responsibility model 29

Ioannis Kamarianos

Identity and ICT: The influence of Rationality, Market Society and ICT in the classroom. 49

Márta Fülöp

Socialization for a cooperative and competitive citizen: a classroom observation study. 59

Alejandra Navarro Sada – Sheila Troncoso – Lila Gómez – Miguel Gómez

Social judgments about ethnic exclusion among Latin-American children and adolescents living in Spain 87

Christine Roland-Lévy

Switching from a National Identity to a European one 119

Mary Koutselini

The role of informal curriculum on citizenship education:
Gender representations in TV and students' gender stereotypes. 137

Paul Watt – Chris Gifford – Shirley Koster – Wayne Clark

'I felt really inspired by it, it was really interesting to interact with the pupils': active citizenship in the British undergraduate social science curriculum. 153

Nilüfer Pembecioğlu

Children and mobility in TV commercials 175

Irena Zaleskenė

Citizenship Education in Changing Lithuanian Society 211

Uvanney Maylor and Alistair Ross

Teacher education for multiple identities in Europe: a study 229

Julia Athena Spinthourakis

Bringing together Multicultural Awareness and Citizenship in post graduate teacher education 247

